How the best perform

Hu-Friedy

POINTS OF PERFORMANCE

Inner spiral design with smooth exterior for superior paste delivery, greater interproximal reach and less splatter

Precision-manufactured internal-drive components deliver reliable, smooth performance

Proprietary grip for a light, secure grasp, greater rotational control and reduced hand fatigue

Soft and firm cups meet clinician- and patient-specific requirements including latex sensitivity*

15° contra angle style allows for a more comfortable, neutral wrist position

Compatible with most common low-speed handpieces
